

Paul Tex Lecor

Image that Capture the Essence of Life

Chevrolet 58, Matane, 16 x 20 in.

“What would painting be without passion in the heart of the painter?” Stendhal, French writer (1783-1842)

Paul Tex Lecor is a lover. He loves people, life, the passing of time. And, he endeavours to prove it, pencil or brush at hand, transferring on paper or canvas for us his impressions of joy as he explores the world around him. Forever passionate, playful, cheerful and alert, his artistic eye will detect the smallest particle of beauty and authenticity within scenes of ordinary life or in the countryside he is roaming. To the point where whatever impresses him becomes a pretext to seize the moment with