The funeral of Tex Lecor were celebrated Saturday afternoon at the church of Saint-Louis-de-France in Terrebonne in the Lanaudière region.

The artist with multiple talents — a painter, animator, comedian, and singer-songwriter — has made the soul there is exactly one week, on 9 September, at the age of 84 years.

He died of complications related to pneumonia, according to what had been stated Nathalie Beauchamp, a spokesman for the gallery Balcony of art was in the care of the management of the career pictorial of Tex Lecor, a long-time friend.

Tex Lecor, whose real name is Paul Lecorre, was born on 10 June 1933 at Saint-Michel de Wentworth, in Laurentides. He was the eldest of a family of three children.

Several people paid him tribute, including his friend of fifty years, Louis-Paul Allard, a former radio presenter, who told The canadian Press that Tex Lecor had suffered a short time before his death an aneurysm, which he seemed to be recovering completely.

Tex Lecor is survived by his wife Louie and three of her four children, Mary Gentle, Saguay, Vickie and the late Anne-Marie, and five grandchildren.
